5. This call, as well as all related information, news and indications are published on the CREF institutional website at the address www.cref.it

Art. 2

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS FOR SELECTION

1. Scholars in possession of a professional scientific curriculum suitable for carrying out the scientific research activities envisaged by this announcement can participate in the selection procedure, as well as in possession of the following requirements:
 - a. age no less than 18 years;
 - b. enjoyment of civil and political rights in the countries of origin;
 - c. absence of criminal convictions or ongoing criminal proceedings that could prevent, pursuant to current legislation, the establishment of the collaborative relationship;
 - d. knowledge of the English language;
 - e. knowledge of the Italian language (only for foreign candidates);
 - f. specialist degree (LS) or master's degree (LM) and equivalent or degree diploma (DL) obtained according to the methods prior to the entry into force of the Ministerial Decree 509/1999 and subsequent amendments and equivalent qualifications for the purposes of admission to public competitions, in Physics or in Astronomy, in Economic Sciences, in Economic and social disciplines, in Environmental economics, in Economics of international trade and currency markets, in Tourism economics, in Economics of public administrations and international institutions, in Economics of financial institutions and markets, in Economics and trade, in Industrial economics, in Political economy, in Economic, statistical and social sciences or in Political science.
2. The qualification obtained abroad must be recognized as valid in Italian territory.
For qualifications obtained abroad that have not already been recognized in Italy with a formal procedure pursuant to current legislation, the Examining Commission is competent to evaluate equivalence by nature, level and disciplinary correspondence (degree class or CUN Area for doctoral qualifications) to the qualification required by this announcement in accordance with the procedures set out in the Regulations for the awarding of CREF research grants.

3. The following are not admitted to the selective procedure:
 - a. those who have a degree of kinship or affinity, up to and including the fourth degree, with a researcher, the Administrative Director or a member of the Board of Directors;
 - b. those who have been holders, including any renewals, of research grants awarded pursuant to art. 22 of Law 240/2010 for a period which, added to the duration of the contract provided for in this announcement, exceeds a total of six years (excluding the period in which the grant was used in conjunction with the research doctorate within the maximum limit of legal duration of the relevant course);
 - c. those who have benefited from research grants and carried out activities as fixed-term researchers, pursuant to articles 22 and 24 of Law no. 240/2010, at the University or other Universities, whether state, non-state or telematic, as well as at the bodies referred to in the art. 22 paragraph 1 of Law no. 240/2010, for a period which, added to the duration foreseen for the contract which is the subject of the selection in which they intend to participate, exceeds twelve years, even if not continuous. For the purposes of the aforementioned duration, periods spent on leave for maternity or health reasons according to current legislation are not relevant;
 - d. permanent staff at universities, institutions and public research and experimentation bodies, the National Agency for new technologies, energy and sustainable economic development (ENEA) and the Italian Space Agency (ASI), as well as the institutions whose scientific specialization diploma has been recognized as equivalent to the title of research doctor pursuant to article 74, fourth paragraph of the decree of the President of the Republic no. 382/1980.
4. Candidates enrolled in degree courses, specialist or master's degrees, research doctorates with scholarship or medical specialization, in Italy or abroad can participate in the selection in question; if they are winners, the research grant will be awarded to them after renouncing their studies or the doctoral scholarship.
5. The prescribed requirements must be met on the expiry date of the deadline for submitting the application for admission to this selection.
6. The CREF Administration guarantees equality and equal opportunities between men and women for access to work and treatment at work.

Art. 3

EXCLUSION FROM SELECTION

1. The following reasons are grounds for exclusion:
 - a. failure to sign the participation application form;

- b. lack of admission requirements established by art. 2;
 - c. failure to comply with the procedures for submitting the application for participation referred to in subsequent art. 4.
2. Candidates are admitted to the selection with reservations; if a supplementary investigation is necessary, they are required to regularize their request within the peremptorily assigned deadlines.
 3. The examining commission may, at any time, with a reasoned provision, exclude the candidate from the selection announced with this announcement.

Art. 4

METHOD AND DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION OF THE ADMISSION APPLICATION

1. Applications must be drawn up using the form attached to this announcement (Annex A) and must be received no later than 11.59 pm on 8th January 2024. Late applications will not be taken into consideration.
2. Foreign candidates must send the application via e-mail to the address: segreteria@cref.it and they will receive a confirmation e-mail. It is a candidate's responsibility to verify the arrival of the confirmation, otherwise they must contact the CREF administrative office. The application must be submitted reporting in the email subject "Call no. 14(23) – Training research grant, in collaboration between Museo Storico della Fisica e Centro Studi e Ricerche "Enrico Fermi" and Istituto di Economia della Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna". A single folder in ZIP format containing all the documents required by this announcement, including attachments, in PDF format must be attached to the email. Applications received by different way will be declared inadmissible.
4. Applications not submitted according to the attached form (Annex A and B) or without the candidate's signature will be excluded from the selection procedure.

Art. 5

ADMISSION REQUEST

1. Aware that false declarations are punishable by law and that the Administration will carry out random checks on their accuracy, the applicant must declare clearly and precisely in the application (Annex A), under his own responsibility, pursuant to what provided for by Presidential Decree 445/2000 and subsequent amendments and additions, as follows:

 - k) to possess the requirements set out in art. 2 of this announcement, indicating the degree cycle, the date of achievement, the Institute that issued it and the final grade/evaluation achieved; the candidate with qualification(s) obtained abroad must declare that they have obtained the relevant recognition by indicating in the application the details of the measure or must attach the required documentation as specified in this announcement;
 - l) to possess every other requirement referred to the art. 2 of this call;
 - m) (if any) to have been the holder of research grants awarded pursuant to art. 22 of Law no. 240/2010 and their duration;
 - n) (if any) to have been the holder of fixed-term researcher contracts pursuant to art. 24 of Law no. 240/2010 and their duration;
 - o) not to be in situations of incompatibility referred to the art. 2 paragraph 3 of this announcement.
2. The application form (Annex A) must be signed by the candidate under penalty of exclusion. When submitting the application to participate in the selection, the candidate must attach the following documents:
- a. copy of the candidate's valid identity document or passport;
 - b. curriculum vitae in European format, dated and signed; the curriculum vitae must contain the following authorization "I authorize the processing of personal data pursuant to EU Regulation GDPR 2016/679";
 - c. qualifications deemed suitable for selection purposes such as specialist degrees, certificates of attendance at specialization courses, obtained in Italy or abroad, contracts, scholarships or research assignments both in Italy and abroad (see Annex B);

- d. a maximum of n. 3 scientific publications including original articles in journals and conference proceedings (including any articles in printed journals) on the research topic covered by the call;
- e. a signed summary list of all documents presented for the purposes of this selection;
- f. in the case of a foreign candidate, it is necessary to attach a copy of a residence permit (if the candidate already has one).
3. As regards qualifications obtained abroad, to be admitted to the selection, the candidate is required to:
 - if recognized as valid in Italian territory, the candidate must indicate in the application the details of comparability/equivalence of the qualifications obtained abroad;
 - if not recognized as valid in Italian territory, the candidate must attach a copy of the qualifications obtained abroad (mandatory attachment), with the certificate of the exams taken or the diploma supplement certificate. The Administration reserves the right to request the translation of these documents into Italian or English.
 4. For all other qualifications obtained abroad that the candidate intends to provide for the selection foreseen in the announcement, it is necessary to attach a copy of the qualifications to the application.
 5. The requirements and qualifications must be possessed on the expiry date of the announcement.
 6. The Administration has the right to carry out appropriate checks on the truthfulness of the content of the substitute declarations in accordance with the provisions of Presidential Decree no. 445/2000.
 7. It is mandatory to indicate a personal certified email address to which communications relating to this selection will be sent. Any change in this address must be promptly communicated to the email address centrofermi@pec.centrofermi.it (or, only for foreign candidates, to segreteria@cref.it).

Art. 6

EXAMINING COMMISSION

1. The examining commission is appointed by the Board of Directors of CREF, on the proposal of the Contact Person for the research activity covered by this announcement, after consulting the Scientific Director and the Administrative Director of CREF.
2. The Commission is made up of three effective members, one of which must be the scientific contact of the project, and an alternate member, internal or external to the organization, with the profile of researchers or university professors (possibly also retired), or experts in the subject.
3. The Commission can also carry out the selection procedure electronically.
4. The Commission has the right to appoint a secretary who takes minutes of the meetings.

Art. 7

SELECTION

1. In its first meeting, the examining commission will explicitly establish the evaluation criteria and methods, according to what is stated in the announcement.
2. The overall rating is expressed in cents, as indicated below:
 - a. up to a maximum of 60/100 points for qualifications and for scientific-professional curriculum vitae; for this purpose the following will be awarded:
 - up to 10 points for the degree grade;
 - up to 10 points for a maximum of 3 (three) publications and other research products related to the research grant;
 - up to 15 points for documented research activities in subjects relating to the research grant indicated as indicated in this announcement, both in Italy and abroad;
 - up to 25 points for the curriculum vitae (scientific training, participation in conferences and in training schools, knowledge of methods and analysis tools relevant to the call, awards and third mission activities, research activities abroad).
 - b. up to a maximum of 40/100 points for the interview, which will focus on the subjects covered by the research grant.
3. Candidates are informed about the results of qualifications assessment before the interview by email to the address indicated in the application form and by publication on the CREF website.
4. Candidates who have obtained at least 40/60 points available for their qualifications and scientific-professional curriculum vitae are admitted to the interview.
5. The interview can be carried out by videoconference, subject to authorization from the Commission, provided that the identity of the applicant can be recognized with certainty. For this purpose, the applicant must show a valid identity document during the interview. The choice for this method and the related access link will be promptly communicated solely through the CREF institutional website.
6. The notice for presentation at the interview, indicating the date, time and any link to the online meeting will be published on the CREF institutional website in the "Calls and Tenders" section at least 20 (twenty) days before with respect to the date of the interview unless all participants in the selection in question explicitly waive compliance with the aforementioned notice period (even by e-mail). These communications have the value of notification.
7. Failure to attend the interview will be considered a waiver of participation in the competition for all purposes.
8. During the interview, the Commission will verify the candidate's ability to deal with the topics and issues relating to the research grant in question and his knowledge of at least one foreign language, as required by the announcement. The interview will also focus on the course of study undertaken and any work experience.

9. The interview can also be carried out in English, upon request of the candidate.
10. During the interview, for foreign candidates only, knowledge of the Italian language will also be assessed.
11. At the end of the work, the Commission draws up the list of candidates examined, indicating the marks obtained during the interview.
12. Candidates will be included in the merit ranking if they have obtained a score of at least 25/40 points in the interview.
13. The Commission draws up the ranking in decreasing order according to the overall final score, which is obtained by adding the score of the qualifications and the scientific-professional curriculum vitae and the score of the interview. The overall final score identifies the winner or winners, depending on the number of checks placed in the competition.
14. The merit ranking is approved, subject to verification of the requirements set out in the announcement, by order of the Administrative Director, and published on the CREF institutional website in the "Calls and Tenders" section. The deadline for submitting any appeals starts from the date of publication.
15. In case of renunciation or withdrawal of the winning candidate from the contract, the grant may be awarded to the winners according to the order of the ranking.
16. The CREF does not provide for the reimbursement of any expenses incurred by candidates for participating in the interview.

Art. 8

STIPULATION OF THE CONTRACT

1. The winning candidate, in possession of the aforementioned requirements, will sign a private law contract with effect, as a rule, from the first day of the month following the month in which the documents are approved.
2. For foreign applicants for whom a residence permit is necessary, the effective date of the contract will be postponed and subordinated to the completion of the process for issuing the permit itself.
3. The winner of the selection, summoned by the Human Resources Office to sign the contract via email, will lose the right to the grant for collaboration in research activities, if he does not declare acceptance of the contract or does not start the activity within the deadline communicated, without prejudice to duly and promptly documented health reasons or causes of force majeure.

Art. 9

RIGHTS, DUTIES AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE GRANT HOLDER

1. The relationship is governed by an individual contract, in accordance with the provisions of the applicable laws and the CREF Regulations.

2. The research activity is flexible, has a continuous nature, not merely occasional, and is carried out under the guidance of the Lead of the research activity, with conditions of autonomy with respect to the research program and its implementation, without working hours predetermined.
3. The grant holder must refer to the research Structure that requested the activation of the contract.
4. The grant holder's research activity is carried out at the CREF headquarters. Any research activities carried out at other structures must be authorized pursuant to art. 13 of the CREF Regulations for the awarding of research grants.
5. The grant holder must annually submit to CREF a detailed written report on the research activity carried out, accompanied by the opinion of the Lead of the research activity and the judgment of the Scientific Director.
6. For serious breaches the contract can be terminated with a reasoned provision from the Administrative Director.

Art. 10

PUBLICITY OF THE SELECTION AND MANAGER OF THE PROCEDURE

1. This call and the related attached forms are published on the CREF website in the "Calls and Tenders" section.
2. The person responsible for the procedure referred to this announcement is Dr. Emanuele Giorgi, email address segreteria@cref.it, telephone 06.45502901.

Art. 11

PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

1. Pursuant to articles 13 and 14 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR), regarding the protection of personal data, and Legislative Decree no. 196/2003 and subsequent amendments, we inform you that the data are controlled and managed by the legal representative of the "Enrico Fermi" Historical Museum of Physics and Study and Research Center. PEC: centrofermi@pec.centrofermi.it; Data Protection Officer: e-mail: dpo@cref.it.
2. The data will be collected exclusively for the purposes of this selection and will be kept only for the time necessary to complete the relevant procedures.
3. The data will be kept for the time necessary to carry out the purposes of the selection, without prejudice to the application of the legislation on document conservation and will be transferred only to public administration bodies directly interested in the legal and economic situation of the chosen candidate, processed in compliance with current regulations and used for the management of personal, social security, insurance and tax positions.

4. The subjects who have provided their personal data will be able to access it and exercise the rights referred to the articles from 16 to 22 of the EU GDPR 2016/679.
5. By submitting the application, candidates fully authorize and consent to the publication of their data on the CREF institutional website, limited to what is necessary for the purposes of this selection.

Art. 12

FINAL PROVISIONS

1. For anything not covered by this announcement, it is applied the Law no. 240/2010 and the CREF Regulation on the awarding of research grants.
2. In the event of a discrepancy between the English and Italian versions of this Call, the version written in Italian will prevail.
